

Sleepless in Seattle

Information from Carol Harth Salick

Time is nearing for the “Sleepless in Seattle” weekend. Which I am sure it will be sleepless for some.

March 15, 2005

The weather should be spectacular, we have had a very dry beginning of spring and we are expected to have a dry summer. We are known to have beautiful Indian Summers. Temperatures in September vary, 65 to 70, however be prepared, and bring umbrellas and coats.

2005 Poitiers News

Plan now to attend this reunion; Seattle has much to offer, the first scraper to be the tallest for many a year, west of the Mississippi and is located just a block away from historical Pioneer Sq, home of the Underground Seattle. Visit Pike Place Market, home of the flying fish, Space Needle & grandeur of the mountains, lakes and bay. Close to Vancouver & Victoria BC to the north of us. Also you can catch an excursion boat to do a little whale watching in the San Juan area.

Alumni News

I'm sooo looking forward to the "Sleepless in Seattle" reunion. It'll be here before we know it.

Good news on my end, I made the decision (not an easy one) to RETIRE with 30 years of federal government service. I'm slowly getting used to the idea and having alllll this time. Hope to get into some sort of routine (not eating bon bons). I'll forward you a photo of the Director of the FBI (Mueller) and me & my husband, Chris. He (Mueller) just happened to be visiting our Division the day before I retired and graciously agreed to pose for a picture.

Take care - Sandy (Law) Iaconis, Class of '66, El Paso, TX

Alumni Found

Eric Castle                      Class of 1961

Susan Castle Rowe            Class of 1964

Linda Lindsey Woodbeck    Class of 1962

Please let us know any friends or relatives that might be interested. You never know who may be looking for them

Website Information from Sue Peterson Sharp

I have gotten the website going again, at least for a while. I found a way to get it on to my old "new" account, so for as long as it is going and I can edit it (which was the problem before) I will keep it up. The url is the same as before with the exception of a 1 after mrsthom -

2004 Treasury Information

Yes it's that time of year. We certainly appreciate everyone that contributed last year.

Again I have enclosed a form for your convenience which will be on the last page. I will be emailing the directory if I have your email address. It keeps cost down, as well as my time spent printing and mailing. I will be putting on the form the email address we currently have in our directory so that you can update. Please let me know if we don't have your current mailing address or email address. You can email me at or mail it to me on the form whether you pay your dues or not. Remember dues are voluntary but it certainly helps with the cost of all the items we try and bring to you. Hopefully you feel it is worth the cost.

pander3575@gulftel.com

Military Brats Documentary

During the Brats Homecoming in Atlanta last year we were privileged to see a film of brats telling stories of their experiences and feelings. I certainly enjoyed it and as usual it brought back all the feelings I had growing up as a brat.

you need any tax deductions you may want to contribute. The website is www.bratsourjourneyhome.com.

Recently I received an email with an update as to the status of the film. They are in need of some donations to buy some copyrights. You may want to visit their website, etc. and if

If you need a hard copy of their email please let me know.
